

Florida Catholic Advocacy Network (FLCAN)
Spring 2025 Opt-in Messaging

The nine weeks of the annual Florida Legislative Session is the most active period for the Florida Catholic Advocacy Network (FLCAN). Weekly session summaries are sent to subscribers every Friday and opportunities are provided throughout the session to contact lawmakers about legislative bills and budget proposals under consideration. With the Session set to begin March 4, 2025, now is the time to urge Catholics to subscribe.

Promotional Message

The following message can be used in newsletters, parish bulletins, and other publications to promote FLCAN and encourage subscribers to opt-in.

Join the Bishops' Advocacy Network

The annual Florida legislative session starts soon and your elected officials need to hear from you.

Are you a Florida Catholic who wants to put your faith into action? The Florida Catholic Advocacy Network (FLCAN) provides opportunities to stay informed and use your voice to advocate for the protection of human life and dignity in our state's law and public policies. As an FLCAN subscriber, you will receive important updates and calls to action directly from the public policy office of the bishops of Florida. Sign up now and start advocating on behalf of vulnerable and marginalized populations who often have no voice of their own, including preborn babies, low-income families, children, individuals who are sick and dying, immigrants and refugees, persons who are incarcerated, and others in need. To learn more and opt in to receive FLCAN emails and/or text messages, visit flaccb.org/flcan.
