International ‘Eucharistic Miracles of the World’ Exhibition To be Held in Palm Beach Gardens

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL (January 19, 2022) -- The Council of Catholic Women Central Deanery will be presenting a Vatican-approved photographic exhibition of the International “Eucharistic Miracles of the World” at the Cathedral of St. Ignatius of Loyola, 9999 North Military Trail in Palm Beach Gardens. The exhibit will be open to the public and runs from February 19th to 27th. Weekday hours are 9am-4pm and 6-8pm, and weekend hours are 9am-6pm. All are invited to attend, and there is no charge.

This presentation features the 153 Vatican-approved “Eucharistic Miracles of the World” International Poster Exhibition. Devoted to the Blessed Sacrament, Carlo Acutis, an Italian teenager and gifted computer programmer, designed and created an online database and website of worldwide Eucharistic miracles. Beatified on October 10, 2020, Blessed Carlo Acutis died of leukemia in 2006 at age 15, and is on the way to becoming the first millennial saint. For more information on Blessed Carlo Acutis, visit <http://www.miracolieucaistici.org>.

YOUTH EVENT: In addition, young people in the diocese and families are invited to an exclusive presentation and viewing of the “Eucharistic Miracles of the World” exhibition on Friday evening, February 18th from 6:30-8:30pm at the Cathedral with private viewing of the exhibit immediately following in the Parish Hall. Please RSVP to Dee Aitken, Youth Minister, at daitken@cathedralpb.com.

Blessed Carlo Acutis (1991-2006)
