February 3rd – Memorial of Saint Blaise

Blessing of Throats

Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness: in the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit.

Pastoral Note: (Ordo) In memory of St Blaise . . . the Blessing of Throats may be given on Sunday, February 2nd. During Mass, the blessing follows the homily and general intercessions, or, for pastoral reasons, it may take the place of the final blessing of the Mass.

If, for pastoral reasons, each individual cannot be blessed in the usual manner, a priest (or deacon, if no priest is present) may give the blessing to all by extending his hands, without crossed candles, over the people while saying the prayer of blessing.

February 11, 2020 – Our Lady of Lourdes

Pope John Paul II designated February 11th as World Day of the Sick, “a special time of prayers and sharing, of offering one’s suffering for the good of the Church and of reminding us to see in our sick brothers and sisters the face of Christ who, by suffering, dying and rising, achieved the salvation of humankind.”

Those parishes that are able are encouraged to have a special “healing Mass” this day for those who are sick in mind, body or spirit. Parishes that are not able to schedule a special healing Mass are encouraged to advertise healing Masses taking place at neighboring parishes.

Ash Wednesday – February 26, 2020

Day of universal fast and abstinence

Ashes are normally blessed and imposed after the homily. The ordinary minister for the blessing of ashes is the priest or deacon. Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion may assist with the imposition of ashes where there is genuine need, especially for the sick and shut-ins.

Pastoral Note: The Penitential Rite is omitted at the beginning of Mass (the Distribution of Ashes replaces the Penitential Rite).

LENT

Our observance of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, a day of fast and abstinence for Catholics. At Mass on Ash Wednesday (Feb. 26, 2020), the imposition of ashes replicates an ancient penitential practice and symbolizes our dependence upon God's mercy and forgiveness.

During Lent, the baptized are called to renew their baptismal commitment as others prepare to be baptized through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, a period of learning and discernment for individuals who have declared their desire to become Catholics.

The three traditional pillars of Lenten observance are prayer, fasting and almsgiving. The Church asks us to surrender ourselves to prayer and to the reading of Scripture, to fasting and to giving alms. The fasting that all do together on Fridays is but a sign of the daily Lenten discipline of individuals and households: fasting for certain periods of time, fasting from certain foods, but also fasting from other things and activities. Likewise, the giving of alms is some effort to share this world equally—not only through the distribution of money, but through the sharing of our time and talents.

The key to fruitful observance of these practices is to recognize their link to baptismal renewal. We are called not just to abstain from sin during Lent, but to true conversion of our hearts and minds as followers of Christ. We recall those waters in which we were baptized into Christ's death, died to sin and evil, and began new life in Christ.

What is the Church's official position concerning penance and abstinence from meat during Lent?

In 1966 Pope Paul VI reorganized the Church's practice of public penance in his "Apostolic Constitution on Penance" (Poenitemini). The 1983 revision of the Code of Canon Law incorporated the changes made by Pope Paul. Not long after that, the U.S. bishops applied the canonical requirements to the practice of public penance in our country.

To sum up those requirements, Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. In addition, all Catholics 14 years old and older must abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all the Fridays of Lent.

Fasting as explained by the U.S. bishops means partaking of only one full meal. Some food (not equaling another full meal) is permitted at breakfast and around midday or in the evening—depending on when a person chooses to eat the main or full meal.

Abstinence forbids the use of meat, but not of eggs, milk products or condiments made of animal fat.

Exemptions from the Lenten Fast

Besides those outside the age limits, those of unsound mind, the sick, the frail, pregnant or nursing women according to need for meat or nourishment, manual laborers according to need, guests at a meal who cannot excuse themselves without giving great offense or causing enmity and other situations of moral or physical impossibility to observe the penitential discipline.

Ritual for Burning of Palms

Presider:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All:

Amen.

Opening Prayer

Presider:

God of tender mercy,
you fashioned us from the dust of the earth and bid us follow your Gospel call in the company of the Church.
Look on us with kindness
as we prepare the ashes
which will mark the beginning of our Lenten journey grant that we who make the desert pilgrimage might come to the font of rebirth with a renewed passion for justice.
May our aims serve your people
and bring us peace,
may prayer sanctify all our needs,
and may we come at last to the table you set in the place where you reign with Christ and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever.

All:

Amen.

Scripture Reading

Lector:

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 58: 5 - 10

Is this the manner of fasting I wish, of keeping a day of penance: that a man bow his head like a reed, and lie in sackcloth and ashes? Do you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord? This, rather, is the fasting that I wish: releasing those bound unjustly, untying the thongs of the yoke; setting free the oppressed breaking every yoke; sharing your bread with the hungry, sheltering the oppressed and the homeless; clothing the naked when you see them, and not turning your back on your own.

Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your wound shall quickly be healed; your vindication shall go before you, and the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard.

Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer, you shall cry for help, and he will say: Here I am! If you remove from your midst oppression, false accusation and malicious speech; if you bestow your bread to the hungry and satisfy the afflicted; then light shall rise for you in the darkness, and the gloom shall become for you like midday.

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm and Burning of Ashes

The lector or choir leads the assembly in Psalm 51 as the palms are burned.

Psalm 51

Have mercy on me, God in your kindness.
In your compassion blot out my offense.
O wash me more and more from my guilt
and cleanse me from my sin.

My offenses truly I know them;
my sin is always before me.
Against you, you alone, have I sinned;
what is evil in your sight I have done.

That you may be justified when you give sentence
and be without reproach when you judge.
O see, in guilt I was born,
a sinner was I conceived.

Indeed you love truth in the heart;
then in the secret of my heart teach me wisdom.
O purify me, then I shall be clean;
O wash me, I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me hear rejoicing and gladness,
that the bones you have crushed may revive.
From my sins turn away your face
and blot out all my guilt.

A pure heart create for me, O God,
put a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence,
nor deprive me of your Holy Spirit.

Give me again the joy of your help;
with a spirit of fervor sustain me,
that I may teach transgressors your ways
and sinners may return to you.

O rescue me, God my helper,
and my tongue shall ring out your goodness.
O Lord, open my lips
and my mouth shall declare your praise.

For in sacrifice you take no delight,
burnt offering from me you would refuse,
my sacrifice, a contrite spirit.
A humbled, contrite heart you will not spurn.

In your goodness, show favor to Zion:
rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
Then you will be pleased with lawful sacrifice,
holocausts offered on your altar.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning is now and will be for ever. Amen.

BLESSING

The ritual concludes with the blessing of ashes.

Presider:

Lord,

bles these ashes +

by which we show that we are dust.

Pardon our sins

and keep us faithful to the discipline of Lent,

for you do not want sinners to die

but to live with the risen Christ,

who reigns with you for ever and ever.

All:

Amen.

If Mass follows - after the blessing, the presider together with the people, make a procession towards the Church. The people may sing an appropriate hymn. When the presider has reached his place in the sanctuary, he faces the people and begins the opening prayer of the Mass. The Mass continues in the usual manner.

Veiling of Crosses and Images – 5th Sunday of Lent – March 29, 2020

Approved adaptations to the GIRM #318

“In the Dioceses of the United States, the practice of covering crosses and images throughout the Church from [the Fifth Sunday of Lent] may be observed (Passiontide). Crosses remain covered until the end of the celebration of the Lord’s Passion on Good Friday, but images remain covered until the beginning of the Easter Vigil.”

The veiling represents a sort of “fasting” from sacred depictions which represent the paschal glory of our salvation.

The veiling is optional, at the discretion of the local pastor.

Liturgical law does not prescribe the form or color of the veil – by tradition they have been made of simple, lightweight purple cloth, without ornament.

One may choose to “veil the cross” following the Holy Thursday liturgy in preparation for the Good Friday liturgies.

Holy Water Fonts

The Congregation for Divine Worship (March 14, 2000 – Protocol 569/00/L) addressed the issue of some parishes emptying the holy water fonts during Lent. They were quite explicit that it is neither proper nor appropriate to empty the holy water fonts during Lent (except on the two specified days).

“The practice of the Church has been to empty the Holy Water fonts on the days of the Sacred Triduum in preparation of the blessing of the water at the Easter Vigil, and it corresponds to those days on which the Eucharist is not celebrated (i.e. Good Friday and Holy Saturday).”

Palm Sunday

Barrett to let him know if you are concelebrating.
